

Looking for a career in the automotive repair industry?

Be on your way to working in a shop within 8 weeks.

We are offering the basic training you will need to get started in a high paying career with unlimited potential for growth. Our industry is growing and in need of young motivated technicians, we can help you start a career with endless opportunities. We will show you the steps needed to start in an automotive repair shop:

- How to interview for an entry level position and how to stand out in that interview.
- What to expect when you start in a new job.
- How to communicate with supervisors in the automotive industry.
- How to get along with and learn from highly trained and experienced technicians that you will be working alongside of.
- The basics to operating a vehicle with in a repair shop.
- The basics to becoming a technician in training with the ability to perform an oil and filter change, vehicle inspection and rotation of tires.

Call 904-778-2224 for information on getting started today!